HISTORY OF PIEC CUEBE.

The congregation worshipped in a private dwelling, which was loaded on the same premises. The history of the church is very interesting. A dozen or more persons formed a religious association in the early part of the year 18th. A mission was organized upon the 8th October of the same year. A number of persons were added to the infant church. Dr. Sampson extended the hand of fellowship. The congregation at first worshipped on Shiths street, near D, from which they removed to the dwelling which they recently tore down to give room for the erection of the present building. In the April of 18th Rev. C. Woodyard, a colored minister of Baltimore, and a member of the Maryland Association, was called to take charge of the mission. The call was accepted, and Rev. Mr. Woodyard immediately entered upon his duties.

call was accepted, and Rev. Mr. Woodyard immediately entered upon his duties.

Much of the prosperity which the mission enjoyed was due to the indefatigable tabors of their pastor. When he came the church did not number 80 souls; now there are over 100 members and 300 persons requisely attended every Subshit. The congregation is in a very flourishing condition and promises unbounded success.

BIOWRAPHY OF THE PASTOR.

progration is in a very nourseling condition and promises unbounded success.

The Rev. C. Woodyard was left an orphan when it years of age and bound out to a resident of York, Penn. He remained 12 years with the Yorker and ran away to Baltimors, where his friends and relatives lived. He soon professed the principles of christianity and joined the Saratog Street Church, which is one of the largest and wealthiest Methodist churches of the country and composed electryman, Bishop Payse, was pastor of the church at that time. He thought that the young communicant possessed brilliant talents, and therefore he exhibited a solicitous instruction several times a week. The young man soon became a candidate for the ministry and he entered the Methodist Conference in which he remained twenty-five years. He left the Methodists and joined the Bapitats about two years ago. A few a onthe since he travelled through the Northern cities, for the purpose of collecting money for the new church. He delivered a very cloquent address at Tremont Hall, Boston, to an immence assemblage. His success as aminister in the Bapitat Church is demonstrated by the flourishing mission church, of which the corner stone was laid yesteday sifernoou. The services were very solemn.

A prayer was offered by Rev. Sandy Alexander, the paster of the colored Bapitat church, Georgetown; an address was delivered by John Causteri a chapter of the Scriptures was read by Robert Dyson. The pastor then placed in the corner-stone he constitution of the church, a Rev Testament, the minutes of the seasociation, a copy of the colored people's church paper, and some silver coin of the

A hymn was then sum by the congrega-tion with all the touching pathon and heartfelt extractures which is characteristic of the colored people. A benediction was then pronounced by

THE RECEITING OFFICES TO RE OFERED NEXT WEEK.—As we mentioned yesterday, recruiting offices are to be opened by Capt. Scheetz next week. In expaneiton with this, it would be well to state that all volunteers recruited in this District will be credited on the draft, which is to take place in January. The recruiting officers, although paid a salary for their services, have no appropriation made whereby they can make any show or display of their occupation without encoroaching on their private means. The point that we would make is this: would to not be well for a meeting of clittens to be called and a small fund created—say $1,000—to be placed in the hands of a responsible party, and be used to defray the expanses which the recruiting officers incur in getting music and other things that are generally used to attract the attention of men who are desirous of enlisting!

Capt. Scheetz is anxious to obtain all the recruits that he can and will do all in his power to help this thing along. We make this suggestion, and think it a very feasible idea for every party who subscribes to this fund helps to lessen his chances of being a drafted man, as every recruit takes one off the number to be drafted in January, in case the THE RECEUTING OFFICES TO BE OFFICE

HANNET SHERMAN HEARD FROM.—Col. Baker yesterday received a letter from Harvey Sherman, the member of his detective force captured in March last, and since that time imprisoned in Castic Thunder, at Richmond. Mr. Sherman is very solicitous that his exchange should be effected, and to that end he desires that some prisoner may be sent to Richmond to procure an exchange. Alt. Sherman was a faithful officer, and has been a sever sufferer in consequence, and the Government should exhaust every means for his deliverance. HANNET SHERMAN HEARD FROM .- Col. Bake tropolitan Police Commissioners yesterday cted Roundsman John W. Clarvoe, of the Tenth cinet, a member of the Metropolitan Detective ps, in place of Chris. V. Hogan, who declined appointment, recently tender-d him by the ard. Mr. Hogan, of course, preferred the more rative position of Chief Detective of the Treasinterative position of Chief Detective of the Treas-ury Department, where his services are most highly valued by the heads of the Department. Mr. Clarvoe has been a Roundeman in the Tenth precinct, and in that capacity has discharged his duty to the satisfaction of his superior. In the new position to which he has been called, his friends feel satisfied that he will acquit himself couldy well.

WOUNDED ARRIVED.—This morning thirty-one ambulances came from Alexandria. They con-tained 220 wounded soldiers, who were removes from the hospitals in Alexandria to make room for those who may be wounded in the front. The immediately went to the depot, where were transferred to the cars. They will be sent to New York.

Malicious Mischier.—Rosanna McGraw was sent to the workhouse several days ago, and when released she immediately repaired to her home. She found the furniture of the house scat-tered about the premises and some throws our doors. Jan Chrismond, housekeeper, was arread-ed by Officer McEifresh, of the Seventh precinct, on the charge of malicious mischief, and was held for a further hearing, by Justice Thompson.

Mass MERTING.—The Unconditional Union une of Prince George's county will hold a man meeting to-morrow, at Mariboro'. The stage will leave the corner of Seventh atreet and Pennsyl leave the corner of Seventh street and Pennsyl-yanis avonus in the morning at 7 o'clock. Col. John C. Holland, andidate for Congress from that glatriot; Archibald Sterling, State's Attorney of Baltimore city; and Gen. H. H. Golisborough, can-didate for Comptroller, are announced as speakers.

To BE SENT SOUTH.—Col. D. T. Chandler, formerly of the old U. S. Army, was arrested on the night of the 9th of February last by the Potomas Rothila, and had in possession at the time glob in gold and $62 30 in U. S. currency. He has been held as a prisoner of State till the present time, and is now about to be sent to Richmond to be regularly exchanged. As the Colonel was not enness on a prisoner or state till the present time and is now about to be sent to Richmond to be reg utariy exchanged. —This morning, about three o'clock, Roundsman Pierce, of the Eighth predict, whilet going his rounds paw a light in the yard of Mrs. Spenifing, on C street, between First and Second east. Upon approaching the yard, he paw three men rolling out berreis of whishey. He immediately precured the assistance of Officers Barkley and Wallingsford, when he arrested the men, whose names are James Cavenaugh, Jerry Commill and Charles No-lan. Mrs. Spaulding, the proprietrees of the rectaurant, is at present confided in the Old Capital prison for selling liquor to soldiers. The liquor had been conficented for Government use.

At 7 o'clock this morning Soundsman Pierce also discovered three others engaged in a similar act at the restaurant of Mrs. Kelly, New Jersey avenus, between B and Cestreets. They were loading a wagon with boxes of wine, &s. Mrs. Kelly is in the Guardhouse. This the poliseman knew, and upon asking them where she was they replied that she was in bed. He arrested them forthwith. Both parties were turned over to Capt. Camp. Soldiers' Rest.

GROVER'S THEATHE.—To-night those humorous geniuses, the Florences, take their farewell benedit. It is easy to predict how the house will be upon the occasion. That it will be one to test the utmost capacity of Rr. Grover's beautiful and commodious theatre is beyond a doubt, for the almost unparalleled popularity of these great comic artists with our own community, as well as with the many strangers from all parts of the country, are now in the city, has been most undeniably manifested during this engagement by a constant succession of crowded houses ever since its reception. A great hill has been prepared for this benefit occasion, being no less than three of the best pieces in the repertoirs of the Florences, in which all the great abilities which have rendered these capital artistes so popular, will be fully displayed. Add to these the beautiful selections to be performed by Koppitz's unequalled orchestra, and the unique finals to the expansive best presented to an audience in this city.

Even's New Turnayar To-night promises.

FORD'S NEW THEATRE.—To-night promises to be an occasion of no inconsiderable importance at the above-named facilionable resort. The beautiful and accomplished young favorite, Mise Magie Mitchell, has her farewell benefit this evening playing for the occasion her beautiful domeatic drains of Fanchon, the Cricket. Ample seconmodations for the large audience which will undoubtedly be present have been arranged. Inamuch as this is the last night in which Mis Mitchell will appear as The Cricket, we would advise all desirous of witnessing the most exquisite home drams which has been written for the modern stage to embrace the present opportunity, as a similar one may not offer itself during the present asson. Mr. Bishop, Mr. Herse, Meedames Muzsy, Chapman, and the entire company at Ford's, will assist in a proper representation of the play. Senie can be secured without extra charge.
